

American Renaissance Conference

March 16 - 18, 2012, near Nashville, Tennessee

Defending the West

Ours is an era of fear and self-censorship. Virtually no whites are willing to break taboos about racial differences in IQ, the costs of “diversity,” or the challenges of non-white immigration. We are different. We believe these are vital questions.

At this conference you will hear some of the most courageous academics, authors, and journalists of our time discuss the forces that will determine our future. This will be a remarkable group of speakers and guests—undeceived, outspoken, and committed to the defense of Western Civilization.

Please join us for what is sure to be an extraordinary weekend.

Speakers will include:

Guillaume Faye – “America and Europe: Brothers in Arms. A French Point of View.”

Mr. Faye is a prominent French author and racial nationalist, best known to English-speakers for his books Archeofuturism and Why We Fight. This will be one of his very rare appearances in the United States.

J. Philippe Rushton – “My Life as a Scientist: The Consequences of Seeking the Truth.”

Professor Rushton is one of the great figures of modern race realism. Of his major work, Race, Evolution, and Behavior, Richard Lynn has said it deserved the Nobel Prize. Prof. Rushton will reflect on his remarkable career.

Richard Lynn – “Eugenics and Dysgenics: A Promise Denied.”

Professor Lynn has written more prolifically and incisively on the question of race and IQ than perhaps any other scholar of our time. AR has reviewed five of his books, all of which are classics. A rare opportunity to hear the master.

Robert Weissberg – “A Politically Viable Alternative to White Nationalism.”

Dr. Weissberg is Emeritus Professor of Political Science at the University of Illinois, Urbana. He is the author of 11 books; the most recent is Bad Students, Not Bad Schools. This talk is sure to be controversial.

James Edwards – “A Winning Mindset for Effective White Advocacy.”

Mr. Edwards is the host of the taboo-breaking radio program The Political Cesspool and is the author of Racism Schmatism.

Donald Templer – “The Geographic Distribution of Intelligence: Evolution, Migration, and Dysgenics.”

Dr. Templer is Retired Professor of Psychology at Alliant International University. His most controversial research is in the field of race and intelligence, and racial brain shape.

Alex Kurtagic – “The Great Erasure: The Remaking of White Identity.”

Mr. Kurtagic is a novelist, musician, and essayist with unusual insights on race and Western Civilization. He lives in Britain.

David A. Yeagley – “The Dread (or Fear) of Whiteness.”

Dr. Yeagley, the great-great-grandson of Comanche leader Bad Eagle, calls himself “the sole voice of conservatism among Indian intellectuals.” His writing can be found at BadEagle.com.

Jared Taylor – “Why We are Right.”

Mr. Taylor is editor of American Renaissance. His latest book is White Identity: Racial Consciousness in the 21st Century.

Sam G. Dickson, Esq. – “A Benediction for Heretics.”

Mr. Dickson is an attorney and long-time racial advocate. He will be addressing his 10th AR conference.
